

City of Bridgeton
Community Partnership / Volunteer Application

In October 2009, Governor Corzine signed into law the "Citizens Leadership Act" providing a method for individuals to identify their desire to serve their community to local government officials.

While this form may be used by anyone to identify any interest in serving on a Bridgeton Board, Authority, Commission, or other volunteer capacity, certain appointments are restricted by State law to Bridgeton residents, and may include educational, training, and financial disclosure requirements.

APPLICATION

I, _____, hereby apply to perform public service for the
